

Church Family,

Kenny Lamm, senior consultant for the Worship and Music Team at the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, recently wrote a post about music in the church during this pandemic. He referred to the song “The Heart of Worship” by Matt Redman. Redman’s church in England, despite its excellent music, was going through a period of apathy and struggling to find meaning in its musical worship. The pastor decided to temporarily get rid of the band, sound system, etc., stripping away everything for a season so people’s hearts would focus only on offering God heartfelt worship. After a season, the musicians were brought back as everyone had gained a new perspective that worship is all about Jesus no matter the circumstances or setting. After the church’s journey together, Redman wrote that song as a personal response to what he had experienced and learned about worship.

*“When the music fades, all is stripped away, and I simply come
Longing just to bring something that’s of worth that will bless your heart
I’m coming back to the heart of worship, and it’s all about You, Jesus.”*

During these unprecedented times of our churches being upside-down in the way we do church, with hand sanitizers, masks, social distancing (when we’d rather hug on people), singing in a car or in the sanctuary carefully distanced from others (when we’d rather be joyfully singing in a choir loft), wondering when this will ever end, remember that wherever we are, whatever the circumstances, we can, and must, bring our hearts of worship to the only One who is worthy of our worship, Jesus Christ our Savior and Lord. And as we start to slowly add our programs, Bible studies and other gatherings, let’s be careful to sort through everything we add and keep only what keeps our heart close to Jesus.

10,000 Reasons*Chorus

Bless the Lord O my soul
 O my soul
 Worship His holy name
 Sing like never before
 O my soul
 I'll worship Your holy name

Verse 1

The sun comes up it's a new day dawning
 It's time to sing Your song again
 Whatever may pass and whatever lies before me
 Let me be singing when the evening comes

Chorus

Bless the Lord O my soul
 O my soul
 Worship His holy name
 Sing like never before
 O my soul
 I'll worship Your holy name

Verse 2

You're rich in love and You're slow to anger
 Your name is great and Your heart is kind
 For all Your goodness I will keep on singing
 Ten thousand reasons for my heart to find

Chorus

Bless the Lord O my soul
 O my soul
 Worship His holy name
 Sing like never before
 O my soul
 I'll worship Your holy name

Verse 3

And on that day when my strength is failing
 The end draws near and my time has come
 Still my soul will sing Your praise unending
 Ten thousand years and then forevermore

Chorus

Bless the Lord O my soul
 O my soul
 Worship His holy name
 Sing like never before
 O my soul
 I'll worship Your holy name

Chorus

Bless the Lord O my soul
 O my soul
 Worship His holy name
 O my soul

Ending

I'll worship Your holy name
 Lord I'll worship Your holy name

There Is A Fountain*Verse 1

There is a fountain filled with blood
 Drawn from Immanuel's veins
 And sinners plunged beneath that flood
 Lose all their guilty stains

Verse 2

The dying thief rejoiced to see
 That fountain in his day
 And there may I though vile as he
 Wash all my sins away
 And there may I though vile as he

Verse 3

Dear dying Lamb Thy precious blood
 Shall never lose its power
 Till all the ransomed church of God
 Be saved to sin no more
 Till all the ransomed church of God
