

February 11 Newsletter

Church Family,

Nearly every weekend I make a quiche--it's called "Darlene's quiche" in my family. It always comes out perfect, no matter how I change it up with vegetables, spices, meat or cheeses. Except once a few weeks ago. Although it looked and tasted fine, I knew something was wrong because I'd made it so many times. I knew I must have omitted an item, and found out what that was when I reheated the last slice. There in the microwave was the melted butter which was part of the basic recipe. It wasn't much, but it was enough to alter the perfection of the dish. I have been thinking of how this is sometimes similar to our lives. We can come to church looking and acting "fine", when we know inside that something is missing. We may be carrying burdens or worries God never expected us to carry alone. We may be struggling with bitterness or resentment. Or perhaps we're caught up so much in the "daily dailies" of work or no work during this pandemic, kids' school schedules (in whatever form that takes these days!) and their extracurricular activities, doctors' visits, etc., that we haven't scheduled time with God or we have forgotten to be grateful for all He has done. Let's take time this month, the traditional month of valentines and love, to immerse ourselves with gratitude in the love of God and his promises to us as his children. Remember what it says in Psalm 59: "I shall sing of Your strength; yes, I shall joyfully sing of Your lovingkindness in the morning, for You have been my stronghold and a refuge in the day of my distress."

Speaking of singing joyfully, I'm excited to announce that our adult choir will start back up on the Sunday everything restarts—February 21! We will be having practices at 4 pm on Sundays (in order to be through early for the group studies that start at 6). Even though our choirs have to be small at this time, I have missed choir members being on stage singing God's praises and leading the congregation in worship! If you haven't been part of our small choirs and would like to, please let me know!

 That God His Son not sparing
 Sent Him to die I scarce can take it in
