Church family,

I enjoy watching winter sports. (By that, I mean most anything having to do with ice and snow!) Last month I was watching my favorite—pairs figure skating. I enjoy the graceful and athletic choreography matched so well to wonderful music. But when I started looking at the competitions this year, it registered in the back of my mind that perfectly executed lifts, side-by-side jumps, throw jumps, and death spirals were not met with applause. It finally dawned on me that the audience, outside of the judges and coaches, consisted of cardboard cutouts of people. When a duo's program ended, the pair, accompanied by fake applause, automatically did their bows/curtseys to paper people. No real applause of appreciation, no flowers thrown onto the ice as a "bravo", just artificial everything.

This month we will celebrate Palm Sunday, reminding us of when Jesus rode through Jerusalem on a donkey, with crowds of people shouting "Hosanna! Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord!" Some were His loyal followers. Others were looking for a messiah who would save them from Roman tyranny. Some, five days later, would change their words from "Hosanna, hosanna!" to "Crucify, crucify!" But no matter what people believed, or how they tried to silence everything by killing Jesus, the fact remained, and has remained, that Jesus is the Son of God. He is not a fake God to bow to. He is the Lord God Almighty! And one day every knee will bow and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord!

In the meantime, let's take time to look at our lives. Where are our priorities? What are we bowing to in a figurative sense? If it's something that is passing, something artificial which is consuming our lives, then let's take the time this month to set things straight. Just as the pairs figure skaters spend years working to achieve a prize in the skating world, let us work hard at the job God has set out for us, rejoicing in the strength God gives us, knowing that one day we won't win a prize that will fade away, but that will last for eternity! (1 Cor. 9:24-25)

There Is A Fountain

Verse 1

There is a fountain filled with blood
Drawn from Immanuel's veins
And sinners plunged beneath that flood
Lose all their guilty stains
Lose all their guilty stains
Lose all their guilty stains
And sinners plunged beneath that flood
Lose all their guilty stains

Verse 2

The dying thief rejoiced to see
That fountain in his day
And there may I though vile as he
Wash all my sins away
Wash all my sins away
Wash all my sins away
And there may I though vile as he
Wash all my sins away

Verse 3

Dear dying Lamb Thy precious blood
Shall never lose its power
Till all the ransomed church of God
Be saved to sin no more
Be saved to sin no more
Be saved to sin no more
Till all the ransomed church of God
Be saved to sin no more
