

February 24 Newsletter

This Sunday we will be completing our journey through the Gospel of Luke. For the past 15 months we have been journeying through Luke's account of Jesus' earthly ministry. As I think back to everything that has happened to me personally, in our church, and even in the world over the last 15 months, it is truly remarkable. So much has happened in that short time. Even now, as I write this newsletter the world as we know it is changing before our eyes as Russia invades the Ukraine. While the world is in chaos all around us, I am encouraged by how our church is still focused on what God has called us to be. Still grounded on His word, still moving forward to reach others for the gospel.

That is why it is so essential for us as a church to have a steady and healthy diet of God's Word. That's why it is essential to nourish our souls through the richness of his truths. That's why we go verse-by-verse through entire books of the Bible, to allow God to speak for himself and to let each nugget of truth give us spiritual sustenance to continue to move forward even when all else seems to fail. The truths that are found in the Gospel of Luke are timeless truths that keep us focused during such uncertainty.

This Sunday, we will look at three of those truths. First, the gospel is indeed for all people. The gospel is not just for one nation, one ethnicity, one type of person, the gospel is for all. We need to remind ourselves that Jesus died for all types of people. Second, we have been given a mission. So often, we spend our time worrying over things we cannot control and ignore the very thing God has told us to be about. We cannot control events on the world stage, but we can share the gospel with our neighbor. Last, because Jesus has risen from the grave and has ascended to His throne, we are reminded we have a God who is sovereign. What we see in the world may have caught us off guard, but we find peace knowing that God is king over it all.

I pray that you will join us on Sunday and that you will invite one person to come with you. I pray this week each of us will be the hands and feet of Christ.

Thankful for my church,

Pastor Nathan Sweet

UPCOMING CHURCH VOTE

Please make sure you're here!!

February 27th we want you to cast your vote

NEW Church Mission Statement & NEW Church Logo

This is an important vote because the mission statement will become foundational to life in our church and will drive future ministry. Our logo will help us to get our name into the community as we seek to be a light for the gospel.
