“First of all, then, I urge that supplications, prayers, intercessions, and thanksgivings be made for all people” (1 Timothy 2:1)

This Friday we have the fall festival and we will have hundreds of people that come to our campus that would not normally be here. Some of them may be believers who are still searching for a church home. Some of them may be believers that have neglected the church and need loving encouragement to come back. Some of them may be people that were hurt by a church many years ago. Some of them may be searching for answers. Some of them may be people that have never been to church their entire life.

Regardless of where they are spiritually, “supplications, prayers, intercessions, and thanksgivings” must be made for each of these people. We want to pray for them as they attend the fall festival, that they would feel welcomed and loved by our church. We want to pray for our church, that we would serve joyfully. After the fall festival, some of our church members will be following up with every family that registered. Pray for those encounters, that families will be receptive and open to hearing the gospel.

“This is good, and it is pleasing in the sight of God our Savior, who desires all people to be saved and to come to the knowledge of the truth.” (1 Timothy 2:3-4)

And what is this truth? What is it that God wants them to know? That “there is one God, and there is one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus, who gave himself as a ransom for all, which is the testimony given at the proper time.” (1 Timothy 2:5-6)

This weekend and in the weeks to come, pray that seeds will be sown in the hearts of people in our community and pray that many would come to believe in the good news of Jesus’ death, burial, and resurrection for the forgiveness of sin and reconciliation to God!

In Jesus Name,
Pastor Adam
